Karen will serve on Clover's management team and will report to Andrew Toy, Chief Executive Officer of Clover.

Prior to joining Clover, Soares held various legal and compliance positions with other organizations, including Analyte Health, a telehealth startup, and Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson LLP. She received her B.A. from Dartmouth College, and her J.D. from the University of Chicago Law School.

"Over the past five years, I have had the privilege of working with the talented team at Clover as we work toward our mission to improve every life. I am honored and excited to step into the role of Clover's General Counsel as we continue on this important journey," Soares said.

About Clover Health:

Clover Health (Nasdaq: CLOV) is a physician enablement company committed to bringing access to great healthcare to everyone on Medicare. This includes a health equity-based focus on seniors who have historically lacked access to affordable, high-quality healthcare. Our strategy is powered by our software platform, Clover Assistant, which is designed to aggregate patient data from across the healthcare ecosystem to support clinical decision-making and improve health outcomes through the early identification and management of chronic disease. We operate two distinct lines of business: Insurance and Non-Insurance. Through our Insurance line of business, we provide PPO and HMO Medicare Advantage plans in several states, with a differentiated focus on our flagship wide-network, high-choice PPO plans. Our Non-Insurance line of business similarly aims to reduce cost-of-care while enhancing the quality of care for patients enrolled in Original Medicare.
